GP-303270

VALVE STRATEGY FOR OPERATING A CONTROLLED AUTO-IGNITION FOUR-STROKE INTERNAL COMBUSTION ENGINE

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

Low load operating point for a controlled auto-ignition fourstroke internal combustion engine is reduced without compromising combustion stability through a valve control operative to establish subatmospheric pressure conditions within the combustion chamber into which fuel and exhaust gases are introduced.